

University of Minnesota Duluth -Recreational Sports Outdoor Program

MinnAqua Ice Fishing Workshop

Saturday, February 9 9:00am-3:30pm

Do you like to ice fish? Ever thought about teaching it? The Minnesota Department of Natural Resources' MinnAqua program is providing this workshop to train people in how to teach ice fishing.

HERE'S WHAT TO EXPECT:

Explore in detail the how's and why's of ice fishing. We will spend the morning at Great Lakes Aquarium learning what is going on in the winter aquatic environment and how that is related to ice fishing. This is all a part of the training on how to lead MinnAqua's angling education programs.

You'll also make your own jigging stick, which you can use when we go ice fishing in the afternoon.

Everyone will receive a copy of MinnAqua's Leaders Guide CD with 39 angling education lessons.
