Course Outline

Introductions and expectations then split into two groups for water and land stations (15 min.)

The water station features - Stand-Up Paddleboarding (SUP) which is a paddling/surfing hybrid adventure sport that offers a thrilling full body workout and is a great way to explore our lakes and rivers. The sit-on-top kayak is very complementary with the SUP and it's easy to switch from one to the other. Two hour instruction sequence involves:

- Overview of equipment design and equipment distribution
- Discuss planning variations for river, lakeshore and surf zone exploration
- Stretching review and warm-up
- Transporting kayaks & SUPs with rudder and fin management in shallow water
- Kayak launching, SUP stance, balance & board trim
- Stroke development & flatwater maneuvers (also maneuvers in wind & waves weather permitting)
- Group communication, hazards and safety discussion
- Depart on our shoreline tour with skill development en-route
- If waves are present we will introduce kayak & SUP wave surfing, SUP footwork to adjust board trim and rail pressure while surfing a wave, kayak & SUP cutback skills and use of the paddle when surfing

The land station features - Kiting which uses the force of the wind to pull a person on a ground board, wake board, alpine skis or snowboard. As a kite pilots skills develop it's possible to move efficiently on cross wind reaches and even travel up wind. We teach kiting skills to two people at a time so if your not learning about the kite you are cruising on paved trails using a longboard and land paddle which is super smooth. Two hour instruction sequence involves:

- Kite equipment overview, foil kite features, launching, piloting, landing, de-power safety systems, cross wind travel on foot and on a ground board that rolls over the grass
- Longboard land paddling stance options, stroke technique, kick and stroke combination, carving turns, bracing and stopping

Lunch on the beach or on the grass - We will take a break and eat lunch as one group. During lunch we can talk more about adventure sport topics and opportunities. (30 min.)

Return equipment to van and trailer area then wrap up the course (15 min.)
